AMERICAN LEGION EXERCISES SUNDAY

Certificates Given by The French Government to be Awarded

RICHMOND THEATRE

There Certificates to be Awarded Next of Kin of Men Who Made Supreme Sacrifice During the War.

With special exercises on Washington's Birthday, every post of the American Legion in Virginia and throughout the country will assist in conveying to the next kin of the American soldiers, sailors and marines who died in the war, an expression of appreciation on the part of the French Government in the form of engraved certificates. Under the direction of Major William A. Stuart, Commander of the Department of Virginia, all posts in the Old Dominion are now ready for the presentation. The local post will hold its exercises Sunday afternoon February 22, in the Richmond Theatre.

These certificates, each of which has the name of the service man who made the supreme sacrifice engraved upon it, have been forwarded to the 110 posts of the Legion in Virginia by the department headquarters in Richmond. Approximately 3,000 certificates will be distributed in the State, those from the army making up the vast majority.

Franklin D'Olier, National Commander of the American Legion has made arrangements with the Adjutant General of the Army for the distribution of approximately 118,409 certificates through posts of the Legion in all cities and towns where posts have been organized. To those living in outlying sections the certificates will be mailed.

The certificates for relatives of deceased soldiers who reside in foreign countries will be presented through the Military Attaches of the allied countries, while those for Porto Rico Alaska, Manila and Hawaii will be distributed under the direction of the several department commanders of the American Legion.

The certificate shows a group figure from the cenotaph in the Avenue des Champs Elysee, Paris. In the scroll above are the dates "1914-1919" Above the group is a quotation from Victor Hugo which freely translated reads, "The people should come to pray at the graves of those who died for their country." The inscription reads "To the memory of ..... of the United States of America, who died for liberty during the great war the Homage of France," and the engraved signature of the President of the French Republic, Raymond Poincare.

The honor roll is made up of 107,962 soldiers, 6,800 sailors and 3,657 marines. The Marine Corps received its allotment of testimonials too late to address and send them to district recruiting offices for delivery to local posts for presentation, and all Marine Corps testimonials will accordingly be mailed direct to the next of kin.

In a letter of instruction to the various posts, Franklin D'Olier, National Commander of the American-Legion said:

"Referring to the proposed presentation of Honorary Certificates by the French High Commission at the direction of the French Government to the next of kin of the men of this country who made the supreme sacrifice in this world war, your hearty co-operation is sought in order that every preparation may be made through your efforts not only to a cause that commands our deepest respect but also to a ceremony that will establish once and for all what this great brotherhood is doing in the interest of those less fortunate than ourselves."

A program furnished by the Community Service Incorporated has been distributed to American Legion posts throughout the country suggesting the form of exercises, to include addresses and musical numbers including both French and American compositions. Special sections will be reserved for the relatives of the dead, to whom the certificates will be distributed following the ceremony.

S. A. BREEN HEADS CARDINALS FOR YEAR

Plans For Season Discussed at Annual Meeting

STAND TO BE ERECTED

Thirteen New Members Added to Team—Several Persons Agreed to Give Financial Aid If Needed.

At the annual meeting of the Cardinal Athletic Club, held at the home of its president last night, business concerning the best interests of the club during the coming baseball season was transacted.

Several influential business and professional men were present at the meeting and tendered their financial support, in case such aid was needed.

While the Cardinals are sandlotters and depend entirely upon the generosity of their friends who toss coin in the hat when collections are made to pay the necessary expenses incident to baseball games they have never failed to pay their way during the many years of athletic activity, and the baseball fans of Alexandria have proved to be true sportsmen in every way by helping the Cardinals make both ends meet.

If possible a covered stand will be built—to extend on each side from the home plate to first and third base lines, four rows on both sides, and the front covered with wire mesh work for the safety of the spectators.

To avoid canceling games by managers of visiting teams in the future, it was decided to only make contracts for each month.

The following officers were elected to serve during the year 1920:

Sylvester A. Breen, president,(eleventh year; Joseph E. Owens, secretary-treasurer (eleventh year): Myron Howard, manager; Charles E. Corbett, assistant manager.

Robert E. McDonald, athletic adviser and transportation representative.

In addition to last years members of the Cardinals H. G. Loverin, N. G Hill, G. H. Kennedy, Billy Crouch, M. P. Frasca, Chief Frazier, Babe Anderson, Hub Johnson, C. T. Dreifus, Tony Crilly, L. L. Beaton, Pete Wheeler and Rosy Hayden, star athletes will try for the baseball team.

WILSON NOT INDORSED

Vice-President Announcing Candidacy for Delegate, Urges Old-Fashioned Democracy

Washington, Feb. 16.—In a letter announcing his candidacy for delegate at large from Indiana to the Democratic National Convention made public last night, Vice-President Marshall sets forth an "old-fashioned Democratic platform."

The letter is directed to National Committeeman Edward G. Hoffman at Fort Wayne, Ind. Almost the first statement of the Vice-President, after his announcement of his candidacy is that the United States got into the European war "because it affected our internal affairs." This caused some surprise as showing, for the first time since Mr. Marshall has entered office, a willingness to differ sharply in public with President Wilson, whose belief is that the United States entered the war to make the world safe for democracy, and to prevent future wars.

Vice-President Marshall also differs sharply with the President and with many Democratic orators in a flat statement that "the war is now over."

AUTO THIEVES MAKE HAUL

Get Car and Booty at Clearspring Worth $2,425

Hagerstown, Md., Feb. 16.—First hanging robes and blankets before the windows, robbers entered Shadrach & Kreigh's garage at Clearspring Friday night and stole an automobile, 12 tires, 12 inner tubes and 50 spark plugs, all valued at $2,425.

The thieves took everything in sight. Sheriff Richard Duffey is trying to locate the booty. The stolen car bore license number 2628.

"CABINET CRISIS" BROUGHT TO CLOSE

No More White House Resignations Are Anticipated

CONGRESS WILL ACT

Question of Move to Determine Disability of President More Clearly is Expected to be Brought up.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Secretary Lansing's enforced resignation continues to hold the attention of official Washington and all the talk among politicians, members of Congress and Government officials continues to center about it. Gossip as to the probable successor to the former Secretary of State is even subordinated to discussion of the sensational climax to the strained relations between President Wilson and the former Secretary of State, which now are known to have been in existence more than a year.

Such terms as a "crisis" in the Cabinet are used freely, and in a sense find color in the frank acknowledgement of Secretary Lane that he equally was responsible for the meetings to which the President objected but the best information available indicates that there is no crisis, in the sense that more secretaries are likely to resign; in fact, it has been stated at the White House that more resignations are expected as a result of the incident.

Opinion in Congress continues divided, with opponents of the peace treaty supporting Mr. Lansing's position and talking of some action to determine how the executive business of the Government is being conducted during President Wilson's illness. There is even cloakroom talk of some sort of legislation to define specifically what constitutes the disability of a President more clearly than is provided in the Constitution. So far it is all in the realm of talk; no member of Congress has brought forward any proposal for legislation.

Persons who are well informed of what has been going on in the inside of the Administration hold to their belief that the Cabinet meetings were only an incident and that President Wilson himself in one of his letters to Mr. Lansing referred to other and more important reasons when he wrote that the Cabinet-meeting incident only strengthened a feeling he had had for some time and that for some months he had found the Secretary of State yielding to his decisions with more and more reluctance.

The affair is expected to probably come up in Congress again today. Mr. Lansing meanwhile has denied himself to all callers. It is understood that he may spend a short vacation in Florida before going to his home in Watertown, New York.

Saturday evening the basketball team of the Alexandria High School defeated the strong quint of the Friends School of Washington. The game was fast and hard fought from the beginning. At the end of the first quarter the score was 1 to 0 in favor of the Friends. However, the fact that the uniforms of both teams were the same and complicated matters somewhat was greatly responsible for the light score.

After the first quarter, uniforms were changed and the A. H. S. lads began showing the visitors a few stunts in basketball. The floor work of the Alexandrians was excellent they practically avoiding every opponent except the far reaching center The honors for points were well shared throughout the quint field goals having been made as follows Knight 3; Dreifus 1; Midkiff 1; Hicks 1. CEMETERY ROADS IN VERY BAD SHAPE

Vehicles Stuck in Mud to The City of Dead

NEED SPEEDY ACTION

When Ground Begins to Thaw Conditions Will be Worse—Now Before City Council.

The need of the construction of modern roadway to both the Protestant and Catholic cemeteries is becoming more and more apparent. Recently during the wet spell several funerals enroute to the Protestant cemeteries have been stuck in the mud and caused considerable annoyance to members of the funeral parties.

The question of the construction of a road to the Protestant cemeteries was discussed last Tuesday night at a meeting of city council. It was stated at the time that before any definite work is done a sewer will have to be constructed on Wilkes street from Alfred street to the cemeteries.

Councilman Lawler at a recent meeting urged an appropriation for the construction of a road on South Washington street which leads to St. Mary's cemetery, from Duke to Franklin streets, and hope is expressed that if this road is built it will be continued further southward to the cemetery proper, that now being in the corporate limits.

IN MEMORIAM

A tribute of love and memory to our dear husband and father, Walker Campbell, who died one year ago today, February 16, 1919.

The midnight stars are gleaming
Upon his silent grave
The one we loved so dearly
And tried so hard to save.
The dear one now is sleeping,
No care is on his brow,
Oh blame us not for weeping,
We have no father now.
On you, dear father, we could always depend,
And know we had one sincere friend,
And the hours on earth you spent
Your heart to ours was always bent,
And when God summons us from this life to happiness true,
At the gates you'll be waiting, dear father, to welcome and greet us anew.

By his wife and children.

The cold, cold hands of cruel death
Upon my dear "Grand" fell,
No more on earth we now can hear
The voice we loved so well

For the first time in the life of the oldest reader, the Gazette, was printed Saturday without containing any reference whatever to Valentine Day. Our attention was called today to this omission by a well known and esteemed reader. We plead guilty, but promise to give more attention in future to the coming and going of this day. Valentine Day following so closely in the wake of Ground Hog Day, probably was the cause of our inadvertance.

HISTORIC STATE HIGHWAY

Bill Before General Assembly Concerns Road Traveled by Virginia's "Paul Revere."

Richmond, Feb. 16.—While it is a far cry from the War of the American Revolution to the recent titanic world conflict, the two are destined to become inseparably linked under provisions of a bill recently introduced in the House of Delegates of the Virginia General Assembly.

The measure in question calls for appointment of a commission to be known as the University of Virginia and Richmond memorial road commission, and provides for the construction of what is to be known as the University of Virginia and Richmond Memorial Road.

The proposed highway is to come into being as a memorial to the soldiers, sailors and marines of the cities of Richmond and Charlottesville, and of the University of Virginia, and of the counties of Henrico, Goochland, Louisa, Fluvanna and Albemarle through which counties the proposed road will traverse, who lost their lives in the world war.

The proposed road, under the terms of the bill, is to be located as follows: From the city of Richmond via the Country Club to the north, thence by way of Oilville, East Leake, Hadensville, Shannon Hill, Mocassin Gap, Zion, Boyd Tavern, to the University of Virginia.

The nearest approach to the proposed memorial highway is the road running westward from Richmond, and known as the "Three Chopt" Road. And thereby hangs the historic thread of this story.

"Three Chopt" Road originally was surveyed, laid out and made navigable by General Lafayette, during the American Revolution, as a military road connecting Richmond and Charlottesville. The French general, or rather his surveyors, marked out the course of the road by three distinctive "chops" in trees in the path of the route that the engineers were to follow.

This particular route was selected by General Lafayette because of the fact that it was the most direct course between the now capital of Virginia and the university city. General Lafayette moved his army over this road.

ALLEGED HEAD OF RUM RING

Arrested in Kentucky With Four Others Following $50,000 Whisky Theft

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 16.—Charged with being leader of a "whisky ring," with the object of marketing liquor stolen in Kentucky and Ohio, R. E. Goodenough, deputy internal revenue collector, in charge of the Covington, Ky., office and four other persons were arrested on Federal warrants.

The arrests followed disclosures of the robbery of a Covington warehouse of $50,000 worth of whisky by means of an old tunnel running under the building. Boards were removed from the floor and the liquor carried through the underground passage to a house some distance away. The whisky was packed and carried across the river into Ohio.

THUNDER AND LIGHTNING

The mild springlike weather of Saturday was followed at night by thunder and lightning and copious rains. The first thunder heard during the early months of the year is said to awaken the snakes, and is generally believed to portend an early spring. Those who indulged such hopes had them shattered in a few hours, when a high northwest wind and falling mercury were in evidence. By yesterday morning the temperature was uncomfortably low, while Old Boreas was making himself heard. The wind roared throughout the day and at times last night. Early this morning the mercury in the thermometer was down to seventeen degrees above zero.

Thunder showers during the winter months are phenomenal. Heavy rains with thunder and lightning visited Alexandria and vicinity on the night of the 24th of January about twenty years ago. This storm continued two hours, the lightning being incessant and the thunder heavy.

A continuation of the low temperature and piercing winds that made pedestrians shiver yesterday, was predicted for today by the Weather Bureau. The forecast was made gingerly, for the Weather Man's head still was 'swimming' from the psychological effect of the thunderstorm, rain, sleet dry, snow, wet snow, calm, wind, high temperature and cold that kept his instruments on the jump Saturday night and yesterday morning. He was doubtful as to when the cold wave will depart, but counseled people not to place their heavy coats in storage for a few days at least.

STRIKE CLOUD FADES

The announcement that the railroad men will not strike, but will listen to sane proposals regarding their requests will be read with relief throughout the country. The United States has been menaced by three strikes in almost as many months. Two have been spent, but within a few weeks another heavy cloud spread over the horizon and caused much anxiety. The staving off of the last shows that workingmen act as reasonable as other people under most conditions.

The Baltimore Sun in speaking of the latest threatened walkout suggests that "the ready compliance of the railroad employes' representatives with the President's proposal for a rational settlement of their claims is in strong contrast with some of the recent statements of some of their spokesmen, but inasmuch as they have acted so wisely and reasonably their unwise and unreasonable words can be overlooked.

"There was something so offensive about the threat of the maintenance of way employes to strike if their full demands were not granted immediately that the attention of the public has been concentrated on that phase of the subject and not enough thought, perhaps, has been given to the fact that the demands, to a greater or less degree, are justifiable. One third of the maintenance of way employes, it is said, for instance, get no more than $3 a day. That is certainly not enough to support a family on. And it is indisputable that the cost of living during the last five years has risen in greater proportion than the increase in pay of these men.

"The arrangement proposed by the President and consented to by the representatives of the employes will insure a fair consideration of the merits of the demands. It will take into consideraton the increased cost of living, the rates of pay for similar services in other industries, the question of a minimum wage sufficient to maintain a railroad man with an average family in health and reasonable comfort, and the establishment of differentials above this minimum based upon skill required, responsibility assumed and hazard incurred. This is no more than fair."

NO THIRD PARTY FOR LABOR

Conscious of the fact, no doubt, that organized labor can achieve little by the creation of a party under its own banner and mindful of the fate of all middle-of-the road political organizations, the American Federation of Labor has set itself against the proposed Labor party. It has organized a nonpartisan campaign committee, which will work within the existing parties for the rights of labor and for the principles upon which workingmen rest their cause.

As a cotemporary says, "in taking this step the American Federation shows sound judgment. In the first place, it challenges the radical influences which have undertaken to usurp control of labor organizations in this country, to weld them into a revolutionary mass and to force them into an alliance with either the mild or the untamed Bolshevism which has spread to America.

"In the next place, the more conservative labor leaders have shown an understanding of domestic politics which the imported agitators have never acquired. To begin with American labor is as much part and parcel of American citizenship generally as any other class. tI is not an element apart. It is not a solidified association of toilers arrayed against solidified wealth. The laboring man in this country is an independent in his politics as to the employer, and has maintained that independence throughout all the struggle of labor to improve its condition.

In other words, labor, as a body, cannot be delivered. It cannot be led or driven into a separate party any more than it can be led or driven into support of a Republican ticket or a Democrttic ticket. Men who work by their hands divide on political lines in the exact same manner that men who work with their heads divide. This has been true throughout all the history of the republic, and it is true now."

Editor: The Gazette.

With a degree of indulgence that is not deserved at a time that matters of real importance are happening in the world you give space in your Saturday issue to a communication headed "Pro bono publico," in which the writer becomes somewhat hysterical over an incident alleged to have happened at what he terms "the Elks' Bazaar." Permit to say, for the information of the public, that it has been several years since the Elks of this city, as an organization, have given a bazaar. Your correspondent doubtless refers to the recent bazaar given by the Chicago Club, which is composed of a small group of members of Alexandria Lodge of Elks organized to raise funds for a trip to Chicago during the next annual convention of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. Stripped of its bad taste the communication I refer to might be considered a more or less valuable preachmont on "system," though in my opinion it lacks even that excuse.

Editor, The Gazette:

An "Old Fashioned Democrat," in a communication printed in the Gazette on Wednesday, February 11, attributes the line, "Consistency! Thou art a jewel, alas!" to one of Shakespeare's characters. Will you kindly tell me where in the works of Shakespeare, the line can be found. The line was doubtless written by the immortal bard, but at the moment I am unable to locate it.

FLED FIRE AFTER ANTHEM

New York Audience Gets Quiet Word and Leaves Theatre

New York, Feb. 16.—After standing patriotically as the orchestra played the strains of "The Star Spangled Banner," 150 women and children in the Bronx Star Theatre were quietly told by Manager Addis Brown, of the theatre, this afternoon that there was a fire beneath them. Ushers had been stationed at every exit and in a few seconds all of the audience had filed to the street in safety.

Manager Brown stood on the stage of the theatre until the last person had been safely guided out of the auditorium and then he gave the word to the members of the orchestra to hurry out.

Almost as the last member of the orchestra escaped from the smoke-filled theatre the flames burst through the floor.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION
Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have
Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 10c and 25c.

Are You A Target For Influenza?

It Hits Listless, Run-Down People First—Their Blood is Thin

Germs Everywhere in Epidemic

Be Prepared—Strengthen and Build up Your Blood With Pepto-Mangan

If it is true that you are not feeling your best—if you have that "always tired" feeling and no interest or enthusiasm—then you should be careful of the influenza.

It is thin-blooded, anemic people that disease strikes first. The fact that you have had a very few serious illnesses has nothing to do with it. Everyone gets run-down occasionally, and when they do, the blood is in no condition to fight off disease germs, because it has not enough red corpuscles. It is the red corpuscles of the blood that fight disease and save you from sickness.

You simply can't afford to take chances when influenza is striking down thousands everywhere. Fortify your blood—build it up with the pleasant tonic, Pepto-Mangan.

And should you be just recovering from influenza, you need Pepto-Mangan because your blood has exhausted its strength. Pepto-Mangan will help build you up.

Pepto-Mangan is widely and heartily endorsed by physicians. It is effective and easy to take. Comes in either liquid or tablet form. No difference in medicinal properties.

Sold at any drug store. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's". Ask for it by the name and be sure the full name is on the package.

VIRGINIA NEWS

In compliance with a request from a committee representing the Roanoke post of the American Legion, Mayor W. W. Boxley announced last week that A. H. McMillan, of New York would not be permitted to lecture in Roanoke. In a brief submitted to the Mayor by the committee it was claimed McMillan now is under sentence to serve twenty years in the Atlanta penitentiary for violation of the espionage law. McMillan was advertised to deliver an address on a religious subject.

Mrs. Nannie Scott Langhorne, 80, widow of Colonel Maurice Langhorne, died in Lynchburg after a brief illness. She was a daughter of the late Henry S. Langhorne.

John Barton Payne, who will become secretary of the Interior on March 1st, is a Virginian. He was born in Pruntytown, Fauquier County. He practiced law at Kingwood, W. Va., 5 years before removing to Chicago, where he became a judge.

Colville Bruce Tennant, 16, son of W. B. Tennant died Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the University of Virginia as a result of being fatally burned by an accident by fire in his room. The young man had arisen at 7 o'clock in the morning to light the open fire in his room, using coal oil for the purpose. His clothing became ignited, but with rare presence of mind he smothered the flames with the bed clothing before calling for assistance from the boy in the next room. Young Tennant then walked to the university hospital for treatment.

Virginia is confronted with a serious shortage of physicians. This fact was made impressive during the influenza epidemic, and, according to medical men, unless steps are taken to meet the situation, the shortage will continue to grow more acute. In discussing this problem, J. R. McCauley, secretary of the Medical College of Virginia, pointed out that there are less than seventy-five doctors graduated each year from the two State medical institutions, the Medical College of Virginia and the medical department of the University of Virginia. Of this number, many graduates are not from Virginia and go into other States to practice. Hence the doctors graduated each year are not sufficient to fill the places of those who have died or retired.

Influenza, pneumonia and other diseases have become so prevalent in Winchester and Frederickk kckouknkn Winchester and Frederick county that steps have been taken to form a number of additional classes in home care of the sick, under the direction of the local chapter of the Red Cross. Special appeals have been made for volunteers to do nursing. Influenza and pneumonia are on the increase.

Abolition of the custom of employing State penitentiary convicts in Capitol Square Richmond is being considered by members of the General Assembly. It is not improbable, it is said that a resolution will be introduced calling upon the State to discontinue this practice. Country members of the Legislature, together with labor members, oppose the idea of convict labor being diverted from road work to keep Capitol Square and State buildings in condition.

The destroyers Abel P.Upshur and Hunt were successfully launched Saturday afternoon at the plant of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company at Newport News. The Upshur was christened by Mrs. Geo. Benson, of Richmond, and the Hunt by Miss Virginia L. Hunt, of Washington, D. C., both of the sponsors being descendants of the men for whom the destroyers were named.

Rockingham, Warren, Clarke, Augusta and Frederick counties are suffering from thousands of influenza cases. Pneumonia is also prevalent and there have been many deaths. In Rockingham and Augusta counties many of the public schools have been closed.

The town of Riverton, Warren county, was virtually "bone dry" a day or two ago. When the ice went out of the south fork of the Shenandoah River it carried away several long sections of the water main supplying the town. The Southern Railway, which supplies its engines with water at Riverton, got busy and transported pipe from Alexandria and had the break repaired. Meanwhile, citizens had to drink cistern water.

Entire Wage Controversy of Rail Workers to be Considered

Washington, Feb. 16.—The railroad wage controversy was Seturday referred to a general conference of union committeemen, called to meet here February 23, and within five hours, the government officials were advised in a telegram from Detroit, Mich., that the strike of maintenance-of-way employees and railroad shop laborers, had been called off. This strike was called to become effective next Tuesday. The telegra from International President A. E. Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Second Letter From Mr. W. G. Woodbury

Gentlemen:—

There exists throughout the country a lack of knowledge and experience of the Ford F. A. type starting and lighting system, therefore depriving the Ford owners of the efficient service to which they are entitled.

To relieve this condition in our territory I have made a special effort to gain a thorough knowledge of the starting and lighting system.

I have actively engaged in the work of building, assembling repairing, and most important, diagonising troubles in the starting system.

The storage battery is a very important necessity and should be given attention by one who thoroughly derstands its construction. I have given this a spec study and have finished the routine of making, buildin and repairing 100 batteries, under a competent Ford be tery instructor.

My next letter will contain information on the Ford Motor and transmission.

They couldn't be built now for twice $71,000

When the talk turns from politics to railroads, and the traveler with the cocksure air breaks in with, "There's an awful lot of 'water' in the railroads," here are some hard-pan facts to give him:

American railroads have cost $80,900 a mile—roadbed, structures, stations, yards, terminals, freight and passenger trains—everything from the great city terminals to the last spike.

A good concrete-and-asphalt highway costs $36,000 a mile—just a bare road, not counting the cost of culverts, bridges, etc.

Our railroads couldn't be duplicated today for $150,000 a mile.

They are capitalized for only $71,000 a mile—much less than their actual value. Seventy-one thousand dollars today will buy one locomotive.

English railways are capitalized at $274,000 a mile; the French at $155,000; German $132,000; even in Canada (still in pioneer development) they are capitalized at $67,000 a mile. The average for all foreign countries is $100,000.

Low capitalization and high operating efficiency have enabled American railroads to pay the highest wages while charging the lowest rates.

What Lincoln said
(From an address by Abraham Lincoln to the Workmen's Association in 1854)
"Property is the fruit of labor; property is desirable; is a positive good in the world . . . Let not him who is houseless pull down the house of another, but let him work diligently and build one for himself, thus by example assuring that his own shall be safe from violence when built."

Oldsmobile

SETS THE PACE 22nd Year

The "THOROBRED"
7-passenger Touring Car

THE trend of automobile engineering points to the 8-cylinder car. And good buying judgment points to Oldsmobile.

We aimed higher than simply pioneering the "eight." We aimed to produce one of moderate price and low maintenance costs, —that had the flexibility, smoothness and abundance of power inherent in the 8-cylinder car.

—that cost as little to buy and operate as the majority of "sixes" and many "fours."

—that would be smartly distinctive, yet characteristically Oldsmobile.

Our aim is attained in the "THOROBRED"—the only popular priced "eight" in which mechanical excellence is combined with riding comfort and up-to-the-minute body lines. Oldsmobiles have been the history-makers of motordom; the "THOROBRED" is well worthy to perpetuate the name.

Descriptive literature will be sent upon request, or a demonstration gladly arranged.

INSURANCE SYSTEM

Opposition Changes Vote to Get Proposed Measure Out on Senate Floor

Richmond, Feb. 16.—Senate and House Committees on General Laws reported out the bill providing for the establishment and operation of a State insurance system to secure the payment of compensation under the workmen's compensation law. The Senate committee made an adverse report, while the House committee was favorable.

The Senate committee, after deliberating on the bill, which was given three public hearings, was split on its report, five favoring the bill and five being for its rejection. In order to get the bill on the floor of the Senate, one of the supporters changed his vote, making the report 6 to 4 against. The vote of the House committee was 6 to 5 in favor of passage of the measure.

The bill is the result of an investigation by a joint legislative committee appointed to recommend upon the advisability of having a State-administered insurance fund. The majority reported in favor of the plan, but Senator Julien Gunn, of Henrico, on Thursday changed his views, and the majority report now becomes that of the minority. Senators E. Lee Trinkle and Donald T. Stant are the members of the committee favoring the establishment of the state fund.

Opposition to the bill brought before the joint committee on General Laws business' men from all sections of Virginia, including leading insurance people and representatives of both employers and employees. Many large concerns, however, appeared in favor of the bill and numerous organizations representing labor are in favor of its passage.

The bill is to be bitterly fought on the floor of both Senate and House Not a section of the State but what is deeply interested in the workmen's compensation law and its administration The Virginia law is in its infancy, and the system has not been in operation long enough to fully test it out. Nuemrous changes have been suggested, but none with the wide cope of the insurance proposition

BANDITS SHOOT WOMAN

Thieves Boldly Dash Through Crowd And Escape in Auto

San Francisco, Feb. 16.—While hundreds were passing by the place, two men were shot and killed and a woman was shot by two bandits in the office of a Liberty bond brokerage company in the heart of the business district here Friday afternoon.

The men, E. R. Stroud, one of the proprietors of the place, and H. A. Bohlman, a stranger, looking for work, were slain as they grappled with the bandits. Mrs. M. Lasater, a bookkeeper, after receiving a bullet in the head, seized a handful of Liberty bonds and plunged through a plate glass window to the street. Her condition was said to be serious.

The bandits dodged through the crowd, several members of which tried to hold them, leaped into an automobile and escaped.

THIEVES KILLED IN FIGHT

Robbers Supposed to be Stealing Liquor Die, Wounding Opponents

Sound Beach, Conn., Feb. 16.—Two supposed liquor thieves and two members of the wealthy Rocky Point colony fought a deadly pistol battle in the killing of the intruders and early yesterday morning in the cellar of the palatial summer home of Mrs. Elizabeth G. Morris, which resulted in the killing of the intruder and the wounding of their opponents.

Maj. Alden J. McMurety, of the United States Transport Service, and Addison Bacon, well known socially, are the men who fought the burglars in pitchy darkness, their targets being the pistol flashes of the cornered crooks.

Maj. McMurtey and Bacon were leaving the house after a meeting when a woman living near the Morris mansion telephoned that it was being robbed. They armed themselves and sped to the scene. After a search of the upper floors had revealed nothing, they crept down to the cellar and soon heard the thieves moving about.

At Maj. McMurtey's call to "surrender," one of the men fired, the bullet passing through the officer's left arm. He and Bacon threw themselves to the floor and shot at the spurts of flame from the thieves' weapons. Finally their opponents' fusilade was silenced, but not before Bacon's neck was pierced. Lights were procured and revealed a man identified as Anthony Florenzo, one of the burglars, lying dead and the other Giovanni Norco, dying. Bacon was taken to Greenwich Hospital, but Maj. McMurety declined assistance and went home.

WOULD SMASH BLUE LAWS

Advocates of Wilcox-Boschen Bill Are Sanguine of Its Passage

Favorable action has been taken on the Wilcox-Boschen bill amending the so called Sunday "blue laws" by the House Committee on General Laws. The measure was reported out with but three dissenting votes, the committee recommending by a vote of 8 to 3 that it pass.

The bill is expected to come up on the floor of the House early this week, and, in view of favorable action of the committee, advocates of the measure are sanguine of its passage.

The proposed amendment, after defining what shall constitute necessary Sunday work, and prescribing penalties for infractions thereof, says: "However, all cities in this State may, by their Councils, by ordinances' exempt and except from the operation of this section trades or businesses and those persons conducting the same and connected therewith so far as they are engaged in the sale of ice cream, soft drinks, tobaccos and hotel barber shops and shoe shine parlors or places and garages, and may regulate and control the same."

PRESENTS PENSION BILL

Veterans With Income of $600 and $4,000 Worth of Property Would be Eligible

Richmond, Feb. 16.—Moreliberality in pensions for Confederate veterans is proposed in a bill introduced in the Senate last week by Senator Thomas H. Hening, of Powhatan. While the bill does not increase the amounts to be paid veterans, it removes some restrictions that now prevent many from receiving aid from the State.

Under the present law, veterans with an income of $300 or more a year, or owning property valued at $2,000 or more, are not eligible to receive pensions. The amendment to this act, as proposed by Senator Hening, would grant pensions to veterans having incomes of $600 or less, or owning property valued as high as $4,000.

WOMAN FALLS UNDER CAR

Mrs. Martha Proctor Loses Arm Through Slipping on Ice

Baltimore, Feb. 16.—Slipping on ice at Monument street and Patterson Park avenue yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Martha Proctor, 70 years old, 722 North Collington avenue, fell beneath the wheels of a Monument street car which was about to stop at the corner. She was dragged several feet and her arm was mangled so badly that it had to be amputated at Johns Hopkins Hospital. She also is suffering a possible fracture of the skull.

Mrs. Proctor was preparing to board the car, and walked into the street as the trolley approached. She stepped on a pile of snow, lost her balance and before she could recover had fallen against the side of the car and rolled partly underneath. She was taken to the hospital in a private automobile which was passing.

Hood Prices, being based absolutely on actual costs of highest quality materials and labor, are consistent with Hood Quality and Road Service

The Hood ideal of tire value and service — greatest average mileage actually delivered at lowest cost per mile — remains unshaken by unsettled conditions which are arising to confront and confuse both tire dealers and tire users.

With costs of materials and labor at a high point, with the cost of cotton showing increased, with labor continually increasing in cost, with rubber only slightly weakening, and with overhead reduced to a point of efficiency seldom equalled in the tire business, Hood will maintain present prices and quality.

Any reduction under the above conditions would necessitate a reduction of quality or quantity of materials or of hook. We will not pull down our standard — a line which makes Hood Tires famous the country over as the Quality Tires of Adhesion.

The quality of Hood Tires will be maintained.

Hood prices will continue as low — as in the past — THE standard by which real tire values can be safely judged. In buying the tires of a firm in the only true representative of independent values — guesswork have come to mean nothing.

Ask us to show you records of Hood mileage volume of last year. Let us quote to you WHY prices, divided by miles actually delivered, make the Hood the most economical tire you can buy.

Can you afford to be using Hoods?

Hood Tires give maximum miles at minimum cost. A bona-fide guarantee with every tire. Fabric guaranteed 8,000 miles; cord guaranteed 10,000 miles. Cut your car expense by equipping with Hoods.

WILL USE CHAMPAGNE

Steamship Chappaqua Will be Christened With Wine

New York, Feb. 16.—Not withstanding the "dry" law the steamship Chappaqua, which is to be launched at Shooter's Island in the Kill von Kull the latter part of this month, will be christened with champagne.

The Standard Shipbuilding Corporation is confident there will be no interference by the revenue authorities, inasmuch as there can be no question of illegal transportation of intoxicants or legal possession of the same, for the wine was purchased before the Eighteenth Amendment went into effect and is not to be used for beverage purposes.

Mrs. Martin Vogel, wife of the Assistant Treasurer of the United States has accepted an invitation to be sponsor for the vessel.

AUTO KILLS AGED MAN

Had Stepped Into Street to Look for Trolley When Injured

While his aged wife and two friends stood in a nearby doorway early yesterday, Edward Saxton, 70 years old, 149 Randolph place north west, was struck and fatally injured by an automobile, at Eighteenth street and Columbia road northwest, Washington.

Saxton and his wife were waiting for a street car and rather than expose her to the high wind, he left her and walked into the street to watch for a trolley. A moment later his wife heard a cry. Looking out she saw her husband lying near an automobile, while the driver of the car, Lieut. Hollis Davenny, well known singer jumped out of the machine and ran to the injured man

Saxton was rushed to Garfield Hospital, wheer he soon died from a fracture of the skull. An inquest will be held at the Saxton home at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Burial probably will be in Rock Creek cemetery. Funeral arrangements are in the hands of the Knights of Pythias.

Saxton had no children. He is survived by his widow.

GIRL IS SUICIDE

Esther Perkins Shoots Self With Father's Pistol at Baltimore

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 16.—From a self-inflicted pistol wound, Esther A. Perkins, 14 years old, 1506 South Charles street, died at University Hospital. She was unconscious when found lying on the bed in her room by her father, and died without regaining consciousness.

The child's parents are at a loss to know what reason prompted the child's act, for she was apparently in good spirits when they ate dinner last evening, but even then she had already prepared for the act. This is made known by the fact that the pistol she used was her father's, but had not been loaded for two years and she had been forced to get the cartriges.

Shortly after dinner the father, Matt T. Perkins, heard a noise in the girl's room, but paid no attention to it. Later, when her mother called her and she did not answer, Mr. Perkins went to her room.

DENIES RUMOR OF DIVORCE

Ridiculous, Says Count Szechenyi, Who Married Gladys Vanderbilt

Budapest, Feb. 16.—Count Laszlo Szechenyi characterizes as "ridiculous" recent reports that he was about to seek a divorce from the countess who before marriage was Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, of New York. "I am the victim of many rumors," the count said. "I do not care to air my family affairs in the newspaper. It is ridiculous to say that my wife and myself are thinking of divorce, and it is idiotic to assert that I am a candidate for the throne.

"My wife is in New York assisting in Hungarian relief work, while I am doing the same here."

The count appeared to be greatly annoyed at being obliged to deny the divorce rumors.

DIES IN FIRE

Children Tossed From Second Story to Safety at Elkins, W. Va.

Elkins, W. Va., Feb. 16.—Saul Roy, aged 65, a boarder, was burned to death Saturday in a fire that destroyed the home of Mrs. Martha Mick. Mrs. Mick threw her children, French and John, from a second story window to Andrew Simmons, another boarder. She then jumped after having been severely burned.

Roy's body was recovered from the ruins.

DIES OF EXPOSURE

Princeton Student Overcome on Mountain in New Hampshire

Dublin, N. H., Feb. 16.—Chas. MacVeagh, Jr., of New York, a graduate student at Princeton and son of the counsel for the United States Steel orporation, died of exposure on Mount Monadnock early yesterday during an attempted snowshoe trip to the summit in company with Charlton Reynders, of New York, a senior at Harvard.

DOUBLES RANKS IN YEAR

Berlin, Feb. 16.—The remarkable growth during the past year of the German independent Socialist, or radical party is shown by figures just published here.

Since March, 1919, the number of registered and paying members has increased from 300,000 to 750,000. The number of daily newspapers expounding the Spartacist cause has been doubled, the party now having thirty-five organs scattered throughout Germany.

RAID ULSTER BARRACKS

Sinn Feiners Disarm Police; Wound 4; Dublin Train Bombed Woman Shot Dead

Belfast, Feb. 16.—A large body of Sinn Feiners attacked the police barracks at Bellatrain, county Monaghan, yesterday employing explosives. The Sinn Feiners overcame the small garrison, four of whom were wounded, and then removed the arms and ammunition. This is the first attack on barracks in Ulster.

Dublin, Feb. 16.—A train conveying a military guard and arms was held up outside of Dublin Friday night by a large band of armed men, who shot and seriously wounded a signalman and threw bombs into the train, wounding a corporal and doing much damage. The guard did not reply to the fire, owing to the darkness.

The wife of a farmer at Ballagh, Wexford, resisting masked armed raiders, was shot dead.

Cork, Feb. 16.—A well known veterinary surgeon, Dr. McSweeney, was shot and wounded by a party of armed raiders in his residence Saturday night. McSweeney mortally wounded one of the raiders.

TRIAL OF WAR GUILTY

London, Feb. 16.—There are indications that the allies are receding from their firm stand that the German war guilty be surrendered for trial.

A strong undercurrent of feeling that vengeance rather than justice prompted the preliminary negotiations has brought about modified demands. A new and less drastic note has been dispatched to Germany.

While it maintains the principle of the right of the allies to insist upon execution of the terms of the Peace Treaty and declares that the present instance cannot serve as a precedent, it modifies considerably the demands originally put forward, waives the claim for the surrender of the criminals and leaves the German supreme court at Leipzig to judge the crimes with which they are charged.

DRY CRUSADE STIRS WRATH

Yankee Millionaires Are Told to Give Money to the Starving

London, Feb. 16.—The New Witness, of which Gilbert K. Chesterton is editor, says: "Yankee millionaires announce that they are ready to spend ten million pound sterling to make England dry or rather those people in England who are not rich enough to obtain illicit drinks from stocks in secert cellars; but they refuse to pay out a farthing for the help of the starved children of central Europe through whose miseries America waxed fat.

"A great deal of bosh has been written before and during the war as to the tightening of the bonds of brotherly affection between us and the United States. The war to a certain extent did ameliorate some of the traditional hostility of the average American, but in its place there has grown up this pestiferous longing to interfere with our national customs and supress our individual liberty. It is difficult to imagine anything more likely to cause permanent estrangement between the masses of people in this country and America than this crusade of Yankee Chadbands.

"If the American millionaires who have amassed colossal fortunes through the war want to salve their consciences, let them devote their money to the starving children who are dying like flies for lack of food.

88 MIDSHIPMEN RESIGN

Failed to Pass Examination—Others Are Reclassified

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 16.—Eighty-eight midshipmen of the Naval Academy heer have resigned on account of failure to pass the midwinter examinations, which have recently been concluded.

A number of others, it is understood, have been reclassified into lower classes because of low marks made in the examinations.

ANGRY MOB STORMS JAIL

Two Men Charge That he Gave Information Relative to Still

Savannah, Ga., Feb. 16.—A mob of angry men stormed the Evans County courthouse Saturday night bent on lynching Andrew Jones, negro, who was held in the building by the sheriff for safekeeping after he had had an altercation with John Horton and another young man, resulting in the wounding of Horton.

The sheriff together with two assistants, stood off the mob, which fired a volley of shots into the courthouse in an effort to force the surrender of the negro. While the mob was attempting to gain entrance into the building, the sheriff slipped the negro out and hurried him to Savannah in an automobile.

The sheriff stated the two young white men beat the negro because he had informed revenue officers of the whereabouts of a "moonshine" liquor outfit.

TO URGE EX-SOLDIER BONUS

Philadelphia, Feb. 16.—The legislative committee of the American Legion will meet in Washington today at teh direction of Franklin D'Olier, national commander, to begin a series of conferences with members of Congress in which they will urge the adoption of legislation favored by the ex-service men. These measures include compulsory military training and the "obligation of adjusted compensation for service men."

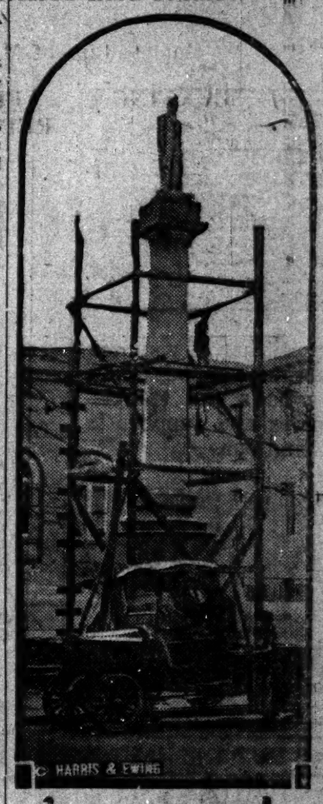
The committee will suggest that a settlement of the Government's obligation to the men and women who saw service during the World War should be made on the basis of a $50 government bond for each month of service.

SUGAR AT $6 A POUND

Washington, Feb. 16.—A form of sugar intensely sweet and valued at $6 a pound has been discovered growing on fir trees in the province of British Columbia, according to an announcement by the American Forestry Magazine yesterday. An article prepared for this magazine says the discovery will be of the greatest value to chemistry and scientfic experiments, but doubts the value of the new substance in the manufacture of sugar for consumption.

The sugar is said to appear in hard white masses, spreading over the leaves of the tree or clinging to the leaf tips. Its existence and use has been known to the Indians of the province.

MOVING LINCOLN MONUMENT



This monument to Lincoln, erected in 1869 by popular subscription in Washington, has been declared out of harmony with the remodeled District of Columbia courthouse, before which it stands. By authority of congress therefore, it is being moved to a spot near the broad Potomac.

Unfortunate Toads.

Science has at last proved by experiments why it is that so many petrified toads have been found imbedded in stone or their remains in lumps of coal. The toads, it seems, have a habit of crawling into tiny crevices in the stone or wood or coal, as the case may be, while they are still young. From time to time they emerge to get food, but as they can live for a year without it, they sometimes stay in the hole too long and grow too large to emerge. If they got plenty of air they will live for a twelvemonth or so, but if the crevice closes up, they die sooner. In other words, they can live without food, but they cannot exist without air.

Beginning of Rubber Industry.

As early as the beginning of the seventeenth century the Spaniards used rubber to waterproof their cloaks, but it was not until the eighteenth century that the rubber industry began.

THEATRES

GRAND THEATRE

A tribute was paid to Marguerite Clark by film officials when she and her company were engaged in producing "Uncle Tom's Cabin," her next Paramount picture, which will be shown at this theatre tonight and in which she plays the dual role of Little Eva and Topsy, by granting her permission to work inside the Jackson barracks, in Louisiana. During war times cameras are taboo near fortifications and barracks, but in consideration of the work this popular star did for the government in behalf of the Liberty Loans and her heavy personal contributions to war relief organizations she was given the privilege of using some of the buildings as backgrounds for the production. Also Chapter 14 of "Smashing Barriers."

One of the best casts seen in recent photoplays has been assembled to support Geraldine Farrar in her latest Goldwyn picture, "The World and its Woman," which will be seen tonight at the Richmond Theatre.

For the first time in her screen career, Miss Farrar is playing with her husband, Lou-Tellegen, who has the leading male role opposite the star. The story of their romance in real life is matched by the intensity of their love scenes on the screen.

INGOMAR THEATRE

"The Disciple" to be seen tonight at the Ingomar Theatre is full of action and romance.

The story is thrilling. It is interesting to see a two-fisted minister hold a whole mining camp at bay and at the same time practice in his holler office."

W. S. Hart is a character actor admirably suited to the role, plays the bepistuled parson and makes him human and comprehensible." Chapter 12 of "The Black Secret" will also be shown.

SHOOTS SELF WITH RIFLE

Son of Former Governor of Louisiana Found Dead

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 16.—Dr. Ashton Blanchard, of Shreveport, La., son of former Governor Blanchard of that State, was found lying on the floor of his room at a local hotel Saturday with his skull shattered by a bullet from a large calibre rifle. He apparently had been dead several hours when a hotel employee entered the room and found the body.

The rifle from which the bullet had been fired was found suspended from an arm of a dressing table in the apartment, and the coroner, after an investigation, expressed the opinion that the wound was self-inflicted.

According to a dispatch from Shreveport he left that city recently on a vacation when his health gave indication of failing. Previously he is said to have spent several years in Asheville, N. C., because of ill health.
